

COURT REPORTING

NORTHVIEW HIGH SCHOOL

Better Job, Better
Future, Better Life

PATHWAY OVERVIEW

Northview High School students have access to Tri-Community Adult Education for their Certified Court Reporting School, approved by the Court Reporters Board of California and the National Court Reporters Association. In this era of technology, students train to be real-time court reporters in the court and deposition field and related careers. Court reporters make a verbatim official record of court proceedings and are responsible for preparing transcripts as required by law or upon request of the parties.

COURSE SEQUENCE

COURT REPORTING

ADVANCED COURT REPORTING

COURT REPORTING MARKET

JOB SKILLS

- Active Listening, Writing, Reading Comprehension, Time Management, Speaking, Critical Thinking, Social Perceptiveness, Active Learning, Quality Control Analysis

SALARY RANGE

- Real-time court reporters can make more than $68,295 annually; only a state license is required, not a degree. For related jobs, certifications are offered.

BENEFITS

- Benefits of becoming a program completer:
- Preparation for a university, junior college, or trade school program
  - An educational focus in Court Reporting.
  - Development of real-world skills and opportunities for experiential learning