

Internet Resources for Parents

California Association for the Gifted (CAG): an organization of educators, parents, and community members dedicated to meeting the unique academic and social-emotional needs of gifted and talented students. Information and resources on the CAG website include: articles, conferences, summer enrichment opportunities, legislation and research information on gifted education for teachers, parents and students.

<http://www.cagifted.org/>

National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC): Offers a comprehensive parent section, the ABCs of Gifted, the Gifted Child Quarterly, Parenting for High Potential, and summer enrichment opportunities. <http://www.nagc.org>

(SENG) Supporting the Social and Emotional Needs of the Gifted a comprehensive, free informational service on the web dedicated to the social and emotional aspects of giftedness. Resources include: Articles, audio files, recommended resources, information on all SENG events and programs, online registration for courses, registration for free monthly e-newsletter, opportunity to honor an educator. <http://www.sengifted.org>

The College Board: College Entrance Examination Board and Educational Testing Service web site. <http://www.collegeboard.org/>

Twice Exceptional (2E) focus is twice-exceptional children, gifted and learning disabled, the website provides parenting information and resources in the areas of parenting, education, and social emotional needs. <http://www.2enewsletter.com>

Hoagies' Gifted Education Page: Provides a comprehensive list of international and US educational resources. <http://www.hoagiesgifted.org>

GT World: An on-line support community for parents and others interested in supporting and nurturing GATE. <http://www.gtworld.org/>

The Center for Gifted Studies (Western Kentucky Univ.): In June, 1989, the Board of Regents at Western Kentucky University created "The Center for Gifted Studies" as a unit within the university, providing an umbrella organization for services for gifted children, parents, and teachers. <http://www.wku.edu/gifted/>

Educator to Educator: Educator to Educator develops materials to support teacher power, which the company sees as the force of a teacher's art and ability in making the difference in the learning process. Curriculum materials are directed toward teaching teachers efficient and sound approaches, addressing their needs and concerns, and supporting their endeavors. Educator-to-Educator books are used by educators from hundreds of districts in 35 states across the U.S. Visit the website for a complete listing of titles and services. <http://www.educator2educator.com>

Family Education: Providing information on Gifted and other Special Educational needs. <http://www.familyeducation.com>

College Edge: A guide to college choices, SAT tests, scholarships, financial aid, and online applications. <http://www.embark.com/>

AskERIC: ERIC - the Education Resources Information Center - is an online digital library of education research and information. ERIC provides a comprehensive, easy-to-use, searchable, Internet-based bibliographic and full-text database of education research and information <http://www.eric.ed.gov/>

Educational Testing Service: Provides information about required and optional testing as preparation for college entrance. <http://www.ets.org/>

Imagine: Opportunities and Resources for Academically Talented Youth a magazine for gifted students in grades 7-12. <http://www.jhu.edu/gifted/imagine/>

The Concord Review: The only quarterly journal in the world for the academic research papers of high school students of history. Since 1987 they have published 517 exemplary essays (average 5,000 words, with endnotes and bibliography) by secondary students from 41 states and 33 other countries on a wide variety of historical topics, ancient and The Concord Review, Inc. is the only quarterly journal in the world to publish the academic research papers of secondary students. <http://www.tcr.org/>

Heron Publishing: Devoted to providing specialized tools and materials to help teachers, parents and students prepare for college and gain the skills that will last far beyond the collegiate experience. Also products for adults, who wish to improve their ability to learn, comprehend and retain information. <http://www.heronpub.com/>

The Connie Belin and Jacqueline N. Blank International Center for Gifted Education and Talent Development at the University of Iowa
<https://www2.education.uiowa.edu/belinblank/>

Counseling the Gifted: Andrew C. Mahoney, M.S., L.P.C., L.M.F.T. Counseling the gifted. Establishing identity. Finding self. A web site for all ages.
<http://www.counselingthegifted.com/>

Tech4Learning: Tech4Learning provides products, information, and services that enhance student learning, supporting educators with tools to apply and integrate effective educational technology. <http://www.tech4learning.com/>

Families of the Talented and Gifted: Parent resource with articles and information of giftedness. <http://www.TAGFAM.org>

The Youth Science Center (YSC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to improving math and science education. The mission of the Youth Science Center is to inform, instruct and inspire people of all ages and backgrounds to discover the excitement of science and technology through exhibits and programs that promote learning through interaction. Presents quality science, math and computer classes for students grades K through 8 living throughout Los Angeles County's San Gabriel Valley.

<http://youthsciencecenter.org/>

Summer Science Camps for grades K-8

(<http://www.summersciencecamp.net/workshops/tag/all-grades>)