Student Spotlight: Maria Villalvazo

Maria Villalvazo, who grew up in San Diego de Alejandría, Mexico, is a true example of dedication and perseverance. A busy mother of three, she's managed to balance family life while pursuing her educational goals. Her commitment to her children—all of whom have attended schools in the Covina-Valley district, with her oldest son now at UC Berkeley, a daughter at Citrus College, and another a sophomore at South Hills High School—didn't stop her from making time for her own growth. Since starting ESL classes at Tri-Community in 2018, Maria has successfully completed the Citizenship program and is now excelling in the Advanced ESL class. Tri-Community is proud to have supported Maria's journey thus far.

This November marks an exciting new chapter for Maria as she begins the Cosmetology program. This opportunity allows her to study a subject she has always loved and puts her on the path to achieving her lifelong goal of obtaining a cosmetology license. When asked for advice for new English learners, Maria offers this heartfelt encouragement: "Never give up, you can do it. Little by little. Stay dedicated and you will reach your goals." Maria's commitment to continuous learning and her inspiring outlook make her a wonderful member of the Tri-Community family, and we thank her for choosing us to help make her dreams possible.
